STRATEGIC DECISION MAKING AND CHANGE MANAGEMENT SKILLS THAT ARE ESSENTIAL FOR MODERN DAY OPERATIONAL MANAGERS
About This Course

Advanced Diploma of Leadership and Management students will benefit from subjects that develop an understanding of strategic planning, business tactics and decision making, as well as how to shape, foster and control organisational change. Risk management, sustainability policy and financial budgets round off this qualification.

Business leaders and managers must deliver operational results now, as well as have the ability to plan for success in the future. The Advanced Diploma of Leadership and Management program translates conceptual management knowledge into a realistic and practical learning program to allow students to apply these key strategic management skills in a real-world setting.

Reading and Writing Skills
The Advanced Diploma of Leadership and Management is an on-line correspondence course so you need to have strong English reading and writing skills, or higher. As a guide - you should have completed a formal course after having completed Year 12 schooling, or have proven workplace written communication skills.

Spoken English Skills
Some components of this course have practical components where students will be required to demonstrate verbal communication skills as part of their assessments. Average English skills are necessary to complete these components successfully.

Numeracy Skills
Numeracy skills are required at an average level eg completion of Year 10 maths and the ability to use a calculator.

Computer and Internet
- Access to a Desktop Computer or Laptop
- Internet access with Internet Explorer 8+, Chrome or Firefox
- Microsoft Office 2010 Word and Subject specific Office products for chosen electives (ie Excel, Powerpoint, Publisher)

Other
- Ability to study and conduct assessments in a safe environment
Core Subjects:

Strategic Planning

Even if your role doesn't involve strategic planning, it is important for managers to understand strategic plans and how they evolve. This requires an examination of the business environment, collecting and analysing data and understanding a business's 'Values, Vision and Mission'. Also addressed are how to prioritise needs and how to create tactical and communication plans to implement your future strategic plans.

Unit(s):
BSBMGT616 - Develop and implement strategic plans
BSBINM601 - Manage knowledge and information
BSBMGT615 - Contribute to organisation development

Organisational Change

Change impacts all businesses. The way it is managed can impact the success of the changes. This subject covers the cycle of change, and techniques for introducing and promoting organisational change. The subject topics also examine normal staff responses to change, as well as important tools to overcome resistance to change.

Unit(s):
BSBINN601 - Lead and manage organisational change
BSBMGT605 - Provide leadership across the organisation

Quality Management Strategies

The philosophy of Quality Management (TQM) as a style of management is based around an organisational need to make continual improvements to its processes and products to meet, and even exceed, the needs of its customers. This subject covers both theoretical and practical things we can do to help make continual improvements in the workplace with the goal of achieving a competitive advantage and fostering a culture where all employees strive to continuously improve activities and outputs.

Unit(s):
BSBMGT608 - Manage innovation and continuous improvement
BSBMGT621 - Design and manage the enterprise quality management system

Business and Resource Plans

The skills and knowledge required to run a business operation and the steps required to develop and implement a business plan are covered in this subject. Integrated into this are the techniques behind operational planning to ensure the availability of key business resource requirements.

Unit(s):
BSBMGT617 - Develop and implement a business plan
BSBMGT622 - Manage resources
Risk Management Strategies

Risk Management Strategies covers risk context and risk identification, as well as risk management processes. The subject looks into the analysis of a risk, its causes, and ways to consider risk tolerance. Strategies for controlling and treating risks, as well as reviewing and monitoring those risks, are considered.

Unit(s):
BSBRSK501 - Manage risk

Sustainability Policy and Strategies

Businesses are now, more than ever, focused on achieving improvements in sustainability practices. Learn to develop and implement a workplace sustainability policy and to modify the policy to suit changed circumstances. Sustainability is an essential business tool for achieving cost savings as well as meeting social responsibilities.

Unit(s):
BSBSUS501 - Develop workplace policy and procedures for sustainability

Financial Budgets

The budgeting process is covered in depth in this diploma level subject. You will get the opportunity to develop your forecasting skills as you prepare sales, cash and operating budgets. You will also learn how to produce budgeted financial statements which are useful for estimating the financial results, financial position and cash flows of a business.

Unit(s):
BSBFIM601 - Manage finances
